

LOCKERBIE SQUARE – THE BIRTHPLACE OF HISTORIC PRESERVATION IN INDIANAPOLIS

PLEASE HELP LOCKERBIE TO CELEBRATE THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE INDIANAPOLIS HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION ON SEPTEMBER 9TH.

YOU CAN VOLUNTEER TO HELP, WORK TO MAKE THE STREETS AND YARDS BEAUTIFUL FOR VISITORS OR SIGN UP TO ATTEND THROUGH EVENTBRITE. PLEASE DO WHATEVER YOU CAN TO WELCOME VISITORS TO OUR NEIGHBORHOOD FOR THIS SPECIAL OCCASION.

September 9th, 2:00 pm to 5:30 pm

LOCKERBIE SQUARE – THE BIRTHPLACE OF HISTORIC PRESERVATION IN INDIANAPOLIS

Begin at The Meals On Wheels: Sol Center, 708 East Michigan (old Senior Citizen's Center) with a fascinating lecture by Dr. James Glass on how historic preservation evolved in Indianapolis to where we are today. The lecture will be followed by a walking tour of Lockerbie Square led by some of the early Lockerbie Square urban pioneers. Several homes will be open and the event will conclude with refreshments in the Lockerbie Glove building which was the first industrial building reused for residential in Indianapolis. The James Whitcomb Riley Home will be opened from noon to 4:00 pm on the 9th at no charge to anyone attending this event. Registration is limited to 80 registrants on Eventbrite.