ACCELERATING DOWNTOWN'S VISION

NEIGHBORHOOD MEETINGS

COME SHARE INPUT & LEARN MORE

WHAT

Those who live in or close to Downtown Indianapolis are invited to attend an upcoming 90-minute Velocity Neighborhood Roundtable Meeting to learn more about the five-year planning project for Downtown Indianapolis and to share input. Participants will help shape a refreshed vision, framework and action plan to guide future improvements and focus investments in Downtown Indianapolis for the next several years.

WHY

A vibrant Downtown is only as strong as its connections to its nearby neighborhoods. Therefore, neighbors are encouraged to come together to understand what's on the horizon for Downtown and to uncover the opportunities ahead to improve connections between Downtown and the neighborhoods.

WHO

Indianapolis Downtown Inc., in collaboration with the Ball State University College of Architecture and Planning's Indianapolis Center will host the 90 minute meetings in each quadrant of the Downtown. Those who live in or near Downtown are encouraged and invited to attend.

WHEN

The Velocity Neighborhood Roundtable Meetings will take place in mid-June. Times vary by location, see below.
